Dr. Tanasarn is a Full-Time Lecturer of Thomas Aquinas School of Law, Assumption University of Thailand. His first job in AU was a responsible lecturer of the Master of Arts program in International Law and Diplomacy from 2011-2017. In 2018, because of his hybrid experience both in Japan and Thailand, he was assigned to be a responsible lecturer of LL.M International Programs. Dr. Thanasarn has teaching experiences in Introduction to International Organizations Law, Theories and Practice of International Relations, Principles of Public Law, Constitutional Law and Political Institute, Administrative Law, and ASEAN Law. He is now assigned to take care of the LL.B. program so that students can be closely advised and guided to Japanese education and more opened up to ASEAN-Japan relations. He is now also a head of the editorial team of the AU Law Journal.
